Cancellation Policy

All cancellations are required in writing to events@accpa.asn.au. The following cancellation charges shall be applicable upon receipt of written notice, as follows:

- Between booking and 60 days prior to the first day of the Conference 50% of the invoice.
- Between 59 days and 29 days prior to the first day of the Conference 75% of the invoice.
- 30 days prior to the first day of the Conference 100% of the invoice.

Payment Policy

It is a condition of booking that full payment is received within 14 days of receipt of the tax invoice unless otherwise approved by the Events team. All accounts are required to be finalised prior to the commencement of the Conference, and if not, the Sponsor or Exhibitor will be denied access to the Conference until payment has been made.

Public and Product Liability Insurance

It is a requirement of the ACCPA Conference that all exhibitors have adequate Public and Product Liability Insurance cover based on a limit of indemnity to the value of AUD$10,000,000 or above.

This refers to damage or injury caused to third parties/visitors on or in the vicinity of an exhibition stand.

Exhibitors and Contractors

All exhibitors and contractors, including those installing custom stands are required to provide the following documents and complete a Contractor Induction as required by the venue no later than fourteen (14) days prior to the Conference:

- Safe Work Method Statement (SWMS)
- Public Liability Certificate
- WorkCover Certificate
- Contractor Induction.

Exhibitors are required to comply with bump in/out and trading policies implemented by the venue and ACCPA.

NB: Safety Vests and Closed in shoes are mandatory during bump in and bump out.

Exhibition Booths are allocated on a sole entity basis, unless otherwise indicated and agreed to by ACCPA. Cross promotion is strictly prohibited. Presentations conducted at exhibition stands are strictly forbidden unless prior approval is provided by ACCPA.

ACCPA reserves the right to alter/substitute components to the Conference as deemed appropriate including changes to floorplans, venue and program content.
